Resolutions of Respect.

MANN.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Mutual Insurance Company of Richmond. Va., held August 5, 1915, the following resolutions were adopted:

Whereas, on Thursday afternoon, July 29, 1915, after a short confinement to his home, the result of injuries received in an automobile accident.

Whereas, on Thursday afternoon July 29, 1915, after a short confinement to his home, the result of injuries received in an automobile accident, our honored, loved, trusted and most efficient president. JOHN MANN, JR., entered into eternal rest. Therefore, be it Resolved, That in the passing from our midst of this philanthropic gentleman, business man, good citizen and financier, the community in general and this company in particular have sustained an unspeakable loss, and we, his associates, wish to declare our esteem and affection for him, who so faithfully and with such pride and fidelity discharged every duty as the president and addrector of this institution.

He was indeed a "Financier, yet friend to truth, of soul sincere.

To action faithful and in honor clear, Who broke no promise, served no price Maintenant and a financier, yet friend to be accident, our honored in juries received the analysis or deriles.
